

Rubric for English Presentations (about a favourite novel)

Name: _____ Date: _____ Term 2

	Approaching Meeting	Meeting Expectations	Fully Meeting Expectations	Exceeding Expectations
Includes a summary: (Main ideas of the story without giving away the ending or major events) ___Who? ___Why? ___What? ___How? ___Where? ___When?	The summary is somewhat complete.	The summary is mostly complete.	The summary is complete. There are some details that take away from the main ideas.	The summary is complete and focuses only on the main ideas of the story.
Expresses an opinion and provides a rating. Includes three reasons and supporting examples to justify the opinion/rating.	Some reasons (less than three) and some examples.	Three reasons with some supportive examples.	Three reasons with one clear and supportive example for each.	Three reasons with two clear and supportive examples for each.
Organizes ideas (they are presented in an order that makes sense to the audience)	Some of the information is organized and easy to follow.	Most of the information is organized and easy to follow.	All of the information is organized and easy to follow.	All of the information is very organized and very easy to follow.
Speaks clearly	Some information is clear. Speaks too fast or too slow or mumbles.	Most information is clear. May speak a little too fast or too slow.	All information is clear. Speaks at a very good pace.	All information is very clear. Speaks clearly, smoothly and with expression.
Speaks loudly	Speaks quietly. It is hard for the audience to hear.	Speaks loud enough for the audience to hear.	Speaks loudly the entire time. The audience has no trouble hearing.	Speaks loudly and varies the volume at times to engage or entertain the audience.
Looks at the audience	Looks down most of the time.	Looks straight ahead, generally in one spot, most of the time.	Often looks around the room, towards various audience members.	Almost always makes eye contact with various audience members.

Parent signature: _____